Advanced Materials

Who We Are

HORN is North America's premier distributor of specialty ingredients, raw materials and chemicals for use in a variety of industries. These encompass elastomers, thermoplastic resins, oil and gas, coatings, composites, building materials, adhesives, nutraceuticals, cosmetics, personal care products, food products, animal foods and animal health.

What makes HORN unique? It's the quality of our people, our focus on each of our specialized markets, and our ability to deliver the highest level of service, most informed support and most innovative solutions available.

Headquartered in Southern California, HORN has direct access to freight railways, and maintains strategically-located distribution centers and warehouses nationwide. Founded in 1961 by E.T. "Jack" Horn, the company's resources are as smart as they are substantial, and are used in endless combinations—coordinated in the precise balance that's right for you. We create our success by orchestrating yours.

HORN Advanced Materials

HORN is more than a super-regional distributor, but rather, an experienced technical total solutions provider. The company's six distribution business units include HORN Advanced Materials – a distinct, market-focused group within the Industrial Division, dedicated to bringing value-added material and formulating process science to its customers through simplified distribution.

Serving a wide variety of industries within its Advanced Materials business unit, HORN's customer base is in the business of formulating, compounding and processing thermoset and thermoplastic resins and elastomers. Primary chemistries include epoxies and polyurethanes, catalyst and curing agent technologies, additives, stabilizers, modifiers, pigments, reinforcements, and functional fillers for the formulator and processor. With a dedicated and seasoned technical sales force, support from an extensive list of best-in-class suppliers and an unsurpassed customer service department, HORN Advanced Materials delivers innovative solutions, formulation expertise, cutting-edge chemistries, problem-solving capabilities and superior customer service required to help businesses succeed.

HORN is an entrepreneurial-driven company with a unique distribution business model guaranteed to prioritize our customer's interests first. Our exclusive approach to representation, and complete but complementary materials technologies, provide us with a thorough understanding of the products we represent, the resources behind them, and the end-use utility for our customers. For nearly 60 years, we have been a reputable supplier partner, delivering the best materials to optimize your engineered applications.

Committed to excellence, and staffed with seasoned industry experts, the HORN Advanced Materials team is ready and capable to support your needs. Make HORN your trusted technical solutions provider.

Challenge us and let us know how we can help!
